OLD POINT COMFORT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., June 30.—Old Point was taken possession of by the midshipmen this week. The cruiser "Newark" and monitors "Florida" and "Arkansas" were in the harbor of Old Point, and a portion of the brigade of midshipmen from the United States Naval Academy, who were out on their annual practice cruise. Most of their liberty while here was spent at Old Point, and a great many of them attended the hops at the Chamberlin on Saturday and Wednesday evenings.
The battleship "Rhode Island," which has been in the Roads for several weeks past, left on Thursday. On Wednesday afternoon St. John Nevin, of the Marine Corps, and Midshipman Fischer gave a party on board, at which their guests were Mrs. Thomas M. Dwyer, and Miss Hilda Becker, of Fort Monroe; Miss Margaret Walker, of Fort Rodman, Conn.; Miss Marguerite Knox, of the Soldiers Home; Miss Annie Gifford and Miss Margaret Kimbrey, of Old Point.
Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, of the post, was the hostess at a large card party on Friday afternoon.
Captain Willoughby Walke, United States Army; Mrs. Walke and the Misses Walke, who spent several months at Old Point, have returned to their home at Fort Rodman, Conn., where Captain Walke is at present stationed.
Mrs. Le Breton and Miss Le Breton, of San Francisco, the mother and sister of Ensign David Le Breton, of the "Rhode Island," are stopping at the Chamberlin. Other patrons are Dr. and Mrs. Robert P. Mason, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Murrill, of Wilmington, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Thompson, Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Kate R. Mann, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Ethan S. Allen, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Chesley, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burrows, New York; Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Miller, Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. O'Neil, Charleston, S. C.
Buckingham Bits.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BUCKINGHAM, VA., June 30.—Misses Annie and Mary Housewright, who have been visiting in Pulaaki, returned home Wednesday.
The ladies of the Methodist Church of Buckingham got together a short time since and started a campaign for an organ for the church here. The organ arrived Saturday, and was placed in the church. Money to pay for it was raised by subscription and the proceeds of serving ice-cream at the courthouse on different occasions.
The rains Tuesday fairly ruined the corn crops on the low-grounds in this vicinity, causing considerable loss to the farmers. Water covered the grounds until late in the day, and nearly carried away some of the bridges. The road workers are clearing away the debris from bridges and roads now, and will soon have things in good shape again. The mail to Wiggins did not go out Tuesday morning on account of high water.
It is understood that Messrs. Flood, Strode and Gayle have taken the defense of Willie Ellis, and will be ready for trial in July.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Province left Tuesday evening for Lunenburg, driving through the country.
Professor E. P. Dahl, former principal of the Buckingham High School, with his family, spent Monday in the village. Professor Dahl is connected with the Farmville High School.

Wilmington, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., June 30.—The past week has been mainly marked by marriages, closing an eventful June from a matrimonial standpoint. The marriage of most brilliance this week was that Tuesday evening when Miss Eva Caroline Stoller and Mr. Edward Adolph Nelson were wedded, the event being celebrated at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in the midst of a large and fashionably attired assemblage. The bride party consisted of Miss Carrie Cotnam, maid of honor; Mr. Newton Nelson, brother of the groom, best man; little Miss Elise Bissinger and Master John Hintze, ribbon children; and Messrs. John Decker, Carl Miller, Herman Meredith and J. Holmes Davis, groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of the church, and immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Nelson left on a bridal trip North.
A decidedly pretty home wedding was that Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Annie Newberry, No. 407 Market Street, when her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Murphy, became the bride of Mr. Walter Macfee Williams. There were no attendants, but the home was beautifully decorated and was thronged with friends of the contracting parties. The service was performed by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

Wednesday evening, Miss Ona Kendall Hobbs and Mr. Louis A. Galloway, both popular young people, were joined in marriage, the scene being the attractive home of the bride's father, Mr. R. R. Hobbs. The bride was attended by a sister of the groom, Miss Minnie Galloway, as maid of honor, while the groom's best man was a brother of the bride, Mr. Caswell O. Hobbs, of Greenville, S. C. The happy couple went South on their bridal tour.
Wednesday afternoon, Miss Hattie Farlow became the bride of Mr. E. W. Stone, of McDonald, N. C., and after the ceremony, left for the North, returning from which in about a fortnight, they will make their home at McDonald.
A surprise wedding was also in the category of matrimonial events of the week, as Wednesday night Captain R. C. Tucker, who is in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line, in this city, went to Florence, S. C., and there claimed for his bride, Miss Rosa Anderson, of Fair Bluff, N. C., and who was in Florence visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker arrived in Wilmington Thursday morning. The bride is a daughter of Mr. A. H. Anderson, a prominent merchant of Fair Bluff.
An engagement announcement of interest, made this week, was that of Miss Josephine Hale, eldest daughter of Rev. Fred D. Hale, pastor of the First Baptist Church, this city, and Mr. Dudley D. Benson, who holds a responsible position with the large wholesale grocery establishment of the D. L. Gore Company.

SALEM SOCIAL.

SALEM, VA., June 30.—Dr. William Ferguson, of Marytown, West Virginia, is in town with typhoid fever at the home of his mother in High Street.
Mr. Roma Starnes and his son, Roma, Jr., of Richmond, are the guests of Dr. J. V. N. Painter.
Miss Laura Painter is visiting friends in Marion, Va.
Mr. Willis Robertson, who has been a student at Richmond College the past session, is spending his vacation with his parents in Salem.
Professor and Mrs. A. H. Throckmorton, of Danville, Ky., are the guests of Dr. F. V. N. Painter.
Mr. Ivan Yonce and family left Monday for Wytheville, where they will spend some time visiting relatives.
Dr. James Morehead, of Northwestern University, Chicago, is in Salem for the summer.
Mr. Frank Ferguson, of Nashville, Tenn., is in Salem for a few days.
Mrs. J. D. Fleming, of Raleigh, N. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. P. Kilian, on Pennsylvania Avenue.
Rev. Melvin Killian, of Blacksburg, is spending the week with Mrs. C. M. Killian.
Col. Cockrell and family, of Jacksonville, Fla., are the guests of Mrs. C. C. Tompkins, on High Street.
Mr. Arnold Snider, of Salisbury, N. C., was in town for several days this week. Mrs. Frank Harman and daughter, Miss Mary Harman, are spending the week in Salem.
Miss Alice White, of Abingdon, is visiting Miss Hannah Armstrong.
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mauney left Tuesday for Newton, N. C., after a stay of some length with the latter's mother, Mrs. V. V. Frantz, on Main Street.
Miss Sadie Cavitt, of Brian, Texas, is the guest of Mrs. Wingfield Griffin.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson and daughter, of Staunton, are spending the summer in Salem.
Much Rain in Greene.
QUINQUE, VA., June 30.—The heaviest rain in the memory of the oldest inhabitants fell here yesterday.
The wheat crops are not all harvested, and what is in the shock will probably go to ruin by sprouting, and the ground is too wet to admit of the machines getting in the fields to try to harvest what may yet be standing.
The apple crop is a failure, and the corn crop is in a very uncertain condition.
A daughter of Joe Richards, of Traill, died from appendicitis last week.
